REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Amendment

The Amendment after Non-Final filed July 2, 2007 has been received and made of record. In response to the Non-Final Office Action of March 30, 2007, Applicant has amended claims 1, 7, 8, and 14.

Regarding claim 7, the claim was previously objected to due to minor informalities. Claim 7 has been amended to correct the informalities, and thus the previous objection is hereby withdrawn. As for claims 1, 7, 8, and 14, the Applicant has amended the claims to overcome the prior art, and thus the claims are considered to be in condition for allowance, as will be set forth in further detail below.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regard to claim 1, the prior art does not teach or reasonably suggest a camera that implements an automated zoom control function with a zoom burst recording mode, wherein at least one automatic zoom mode is selected prior to depressing the shutter button, and the user selectively chooses one or more of the images having different zoom levels for storage. The prior art also does not teach that the automatic zoom modes to be set are selected from a near priority mode, a far priority mode, a custom wide angle priority mode, and a custom zoom priority mode.

Similarly, regarding remaining independent claims 7, 8, and 14, the prior art does not teach or reasonably suggest a camera (or method of operating a camera) that implements an automated zoom control function with a zoom burst recording mode, wherein at least one automatic zoom mode is selected prior to depressing the shutter button, and the user selectively chooses one or more of the images having different zoom levels for storage. The prior art also does not teach that the automatic zoom modes to be set are a near priority mode, a far priority mode, a custom wide angle priority mode, and a custom zoom priority mode.

As for claims 2-6, 9-13, and 15-20, these claims are either directly or indirectly dependent upon allowable independent claims 1, 7, 8, and 14, and thus claims 2-6, 9-13, and 15-20 are considered to be allowable, as well.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
